

Appointed Chair(Elect)of the Programme Committee

Role Profile

Term of office 1 year (Elect), then 3-year term

Context

The British Cardiovascular Society (BCS) is a membership organisation with charitable status. The BCS plays a pivotal role in the setting and advising on standards and, through a variety of activities, influences the quality of cardiology practice in hospitals. It has a broad education portfolio, contributes to training, professional examinations and research activities. The BCS has an ambitious strategy to

General

The Chair of the Programme Committee reports to and works closely with the VP for Education. The post holder will also work closely with other officers, and staff

